The Columbus Military Service Walk is a place of reflection to honor the service of Soldiers and families of the United States Armed Forces. Our mission is to demonstrate the sacrifices made in military communities by displaying correspondences between Soldiers and their loved ones.

Instructions for Submission

Submit any form of correspondence that demonstrates the sacrifices pertinent to military service. Forms of communication include, but are not limited to, letters, telegrams, journals, e-mails, chats, texts, tweets, etc., and can be from any party involved (service member, friends, family, etc.)

All submissions should be copies or excerpts of original medium. Submissions will not be returned.

Each submission must be accompanied with the attached privacy release form.

Please provide the following information with each submission:

1. Submitter’s Name and Relationship to the Communication
2. Submitter’s Contact Information (Phone, Mailing Address, and E-mail)
3. Writer’s Name (If Military, Please Include Rank, Branch of Service, and Unit if Known)
4. Recipient of Communication and His/Her Relationship to Sender
5. Form of Communication (Letters, E-mails, Tweets, Telegrams, etc.)
6. Letter Origin (France, Germany, Haiti, Iraq, Afghanistan, etc.)

All information must be submitted for the correspondence to be considered.

Submit correspondences to duffel bag displays located at any local branch of CB&T or via e-mail to militaryservicewalk@columbusbankandtrust.com
